

Name: _____

Class: _____

Creole Drummer

The drum is an important instrument for people of African descent. Many drummers say that playing the drums strengthens connections with the ancestors, and with their African roots. In the Creole community of Gales Point, the drum is one of the key instruments used during the celebration of Christmas Bram. It is also used to accompany the Sambai dance.

Instructions: Colour the drummer and the scene below.

